Re: Web Designer

Dear Hiring Manager,

My interest in web designing field led me to responding to your recent ad for a Web Designer on indeed. I feel that my educational and professional background in website and software development will prove beneficial to this position and enhance the Internet presence of your company.

With over two years of experience in website content development and design for working on college projects here at Centennial College, I feel confident that my abilities would prove an asset to your company. I have designed several websites and applications for the following courses: Cloud computing, Web development and mobile application development.

I am proficient in the use of JavaScript, HTML5, jQuery, CSS and with an understanding of PHP and MySQL. I have used these tools to successfully create webpages. In addition, I have worked with mobile technologies for Android applications.

I will bring my leadership and organizational skills and technological expertise to your web design projects to ensure timely completion and implementation to increase brand awareness and promote your company's products. I look forward to attending an interview to discuss my qualifications for this position in person.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Abdulghafor Nurali
